

The article entitled “Involvement of Cyclic AMP and Nitric Oxide in Immunoglobulin E-dependent Activation of Fc ϵ RII/CD23⁺ Normal Human Keratinocytes (J. Clin. Invest. 93:2275–2279), was submitted October 27, 1993, accepted after revision on February 25, 1994, and published in the May 1994 issue. While the review was in progress, a duplicate version of the article was provided to Cellular and Molecular Biology as a component of non-refereed symposium proceedings, and was published in May 1994 (Cell. Mol. Biol. 40(3):283–290, 1994). The authors have apologized to the Editors for this incident, which violated the policies and practices of the JCI.
