UT SOUTHWESTERN MEDICAL CENTER

Director of the Center for Human Nutrition

The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center has initiated a search for a new Director of the Center for Human Nutrition. UT Southwestern is a premier academic institution with an exceptionally strong tradition of accomplishment in metabolism, genetic, and clinical research.

The Center for Human Nutrition has excelled under the leadership of the current director, Scott M. Grundy, M.D., who will step down after leading the internationally acclaimed Center for over 30 years. The Center is supported by a large endowment.

Candidates should have an outstanding record of achievement in metabolism and a vision for growing and directing programs of excellence in scientific, clinical, and translational research, as well as community engagement and education. Appointment to the UT Southwestern faculty will be at the rank of Associate or full Professor with tenure.

Interested candidates should send a curriculum vitae to: nutrition.search@utsouthwestern.edu

UTSW is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities, veterans and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
